Sing a New Song

Cantate Domino canticum novum
Sing a new song.

Let your voice roar with the creatures of the sea.
The sea will roar and all the creatures.

Shout as the trees of the forest shout.
Rejoice with the sky and be glad with the earth.

Adorate Dominum in atrio sancto eius.
Dicite gentibus quia Dominus regnavit etenim correxerit orbem qui non movebitur.

Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness Say to the tribes that the Lord reigns for indeed He sets right the world so that it shall not move.

English text adapted from Psalms 96 and 98 by the composer. Latin text is from Latin Vulgate Psalm 96, as translated from the Greek by Jerome (347-420).
